

*M*ark Twain called the late 19th century the “Gilded Age”—glittering on the surface but corrupt underneath. It was a period of greed and guile: of corporate buccaneers, scandal-plagued politics and vulgar display. It was also an era of abject poverty and inequality as millions of immigrants poured into the United States and the high concentration of wealth became more visible and contentious. Sound familiar?

The New Gilded Age

*P*ut on your tux or gown (or not...jeans are fine, too) and help redistribute the wealth of our “New Gilded Age” at the annual fund-raising auction for Lake Fellowship. You do not have to be part of the 1% to bid and win valuable objets d’art and offerings of all varieties. Bring friends and neighbors and come join the fun at this gala event!
